Seventh Sunday Of Easter:.....BCP 171

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

A.C.M. PRAYER

Gracious God, we thank You for this opportunity to worship and praise You; as we come into Your presence we do so with grateful hearts. We ask that You continue to mould us to be perfect leaders in our homes, workplaces, our communities and in this Parish. Help us to become perfect role models to the young people, especially the young men in this Church and in the wider community; we pray in the name of Your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson .....Mr. Trevor Bethel

Reader : A Reading from the Word of God written in Acts 1:15-26

15. In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, 16. "Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus-- 17. for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry." 18. (Now this man acquired a field with the reward of his wickedness; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. 19. This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) 20. "For it is written in the book of Psalms, `Let his homestead become desolate, and let there be no one to live in it'; and `Let another take his position of overseer.' 21. So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22. beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us-- one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection." 23. So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. 24. Then they prayed and said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen 25. to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." 26. And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE PROPER PSALM.....68:1-20

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit
As it was in the beginning, is now and shall be forever. Amen.

The Second Lesson .....Mr. Kenrick Major

Reader: A Reading from the Word of God written in 1 John 5:9-15

9. If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. 10. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. 11. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. 13. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. 14. And this is the boldness we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. 15. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him.

All: And also with you

Gospellor: A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to John 17:11b-19

All: Glory to Christ our Saviour

11b. Jesus prayed for his disciples, saying, "Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. 12. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. 13. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. 14. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. 15. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. 16. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. 17. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. 18. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. 19. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth."

LIVING AN ABUNDANT LIFE

“First we form habits, and then they form us. Conquer your bad habits or they will conquer you.” Rob Gilbert

The “habits” we develop while using our God given wealth will dictate if we find abundance and peace, or scarcity and turmoil. Good habits like having a healthy self image, living within our paycheck, saving on a regular bases and expanding our knowledge will generally lead to financial stability, while bad spending habits can lead to a financial crisis. Therefore, positive habits create the self-reinforcing cycle of increased positive results, but the contrary is also true for negative habits.

It has been said that "Man is a creature of habit". Habit is defined as “A recurrent, often unconscious pattern of behavior that is acquired through frequent repetition”. Our lives are made up of a collection of habits that govern how we act physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually.

Most of us know that bad habits ultimately lead to a bad outcome. However, stopping a bad habit is often not easy. This is illustrated well by the quote “Bad habits are like a comfortable bed, easy to get into, but hard to get out of”. Studies have shown that we repeat bad habits because they create pleasure in our brains, however temporary.

To change bad habits we must become consciously aware of our God given wealth and any habit that blocks us from enhancing this wealth and ultimately loosing it. We must begin a process called “STOP and PAY ATTENTION”. The objective here to try and get us to slow down our lives and really understand how we instinctively react to money matters. A practical tool for changing spending habits is; first journalize our spending behavior for a month, second create a one month spending budget and third act on the budget. As we repeatedly perform these steps we begin to create new positive habits.

Every time through awareness we reject our bad habits and consciously replace them with good habits we strengthen our self image and the process gets easier. In the end we achieve growth in our self image and financial wealth.

"We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence then, is not an act, but a habit." Aristotle
